Polish-Chinese Business Day, June
20th 2016

2016-06-14 03:55:37

Trade and Investment Promotion Section, in the Embassy of the Republic of Poland in Beijing have the pleasure to invite you to the Polish-Chinese Business Day event. The event will take place in the Embassy of the Republic of Poland in Beijing on the 20th of June, and will start at 13.30 (address: Jianguomen Wai, 1 Ritan Str.).

The aim of the meeting is to present the offers of Polish importers/exporters, investment projects in Poland, as well as to create opportunity for discussion about possibilities of promoting Poland and economic cooperation between Poland and China.

Polish-Chinese Business Day is held on the occasion of several Marshal's office representatives, and more than 10 enterprises from the mazowieckie, lodzkie and lubelskie voivodeships visit to China (list of participants is included in the attachments). Furthermore, representatives of Polish business community in China are also invited to take part in the event.

We hope that the Day of Polish-Chinese Business will be a crucial platform of creating contacts and exchanging views of entities interested in developing Polish-Chinese relationship - e.g. representatives of enterprises specialized in import/export and foreign investments.

We also kindly encourage all parties to propose presentations and make speeches.
