22-23, 2016

2016-06-15 07:11:32

On behalf of the Lublin Foundation of Business Support and International Cooperation and the House of Eastern Poland in Brussels, we are pleased to invite you to attend II Eastern Business Forum which will be held on June 22-23, 2016 in Lublin Conference Center, Grottgera Str. 2, Poland. Also, we would like to kindly ask you to share this information and support us in invitation of entrepreneurs from the countries which you represent.

The main aim of the event is to reinforce progress of linking of market operators, in order to realization of common ideas and business projects, which affects the development of the local economies of voivodeships of Eastern Poland.

Likewise the previous edition, II Eastern Business Forum will host the representatives of ministries, local government officials, members of chambers of commerce, ambassadors, consuls, experts of eastern markets and entrepreneurs from Poland, Ukraine, Belarus, Uzbekistan, Kazakhstan, China, India, Russia, Moldova, UAE, Saudi Arabia and Nigeria and other UE members.

The theme of presentations and discussions will include the description of opportunities for development and investment process of the entire macro region of Eastern Poland.

The key element of the program will be the individual trade meetings in the form of conversations "business2business" and "business2administration". The complement to the practical part of the conference will become the "case study" and study visits on June, 23rd.

We are convinced that II Eastern Business Forum will create wide abilities for the development of the business and will be a unique opportunity for establishing many new international contacts.

Forum has a very high potential to become a huge international business event. In order to confirm the success of the event we attached the material of its previous edition.

We would like to express the hope that you will honor us with the presence and participation in the forum.
