On the occasion of the visit of the chairman of the Chinese People's Republic Xi Jinping to Poland, Trade and Investment Promotion Section organised "Polish- Chinese Business Day". The event was attended by more than 150 people - mainly by the representatives of Chinese companies dealing in import of goods and planning investments abroad.

During the seminar representatives of Polish companies exporting Polish products, mostly food & beverages, presented their offers along with companies searching for partners for investment projects. Speeches were made by Spółdzielnia Obrotu Towarowego Przemysłu Mleczarskiego (dairy products), Polskie Konsorcjum Gospodarcze (car terminal in Koroszczyn), Expo XXI (exhibition center in Warsaw), Jang Speys (Polish design of furnitures and interiors in China), 7th Consulting (Polish consulting company operating in Shanghai), OK Investment Group (Polish investor in real estate and renewable energy), Icuasu (Chinese company dealing with import of food products to China juices, cookies etc.- brand Wisła) PMT Trading (Polish company dealing in export of vodka and sweets to China).

During the bilateral talks, which foloowed after the seminar, representatives of 20 Polish companies held talks with Chinese companies about trade and investment cooperation. In addition, Trade and Promotion Section has prepared catalogs and brochure of another 100 Polish companies.

In addition to trade and investment, the event was held to further promote Poland in China. Guests were greeted by Polish students dressed in traditional folk costumes. Representatives of the Chinese business newspapers (among others 21st Century Business Herald, The Economic Observer i China Business News) were also invited to the event.

Guests were greeted by Deputy Director Counsellor Piotr Gillert , Head of the Trade and Investment Promotion Section Counsellor Robert Góralczyk and Member of the Board of Lubusz Voivodeship Paweł Nakonieczny.

On the Chinese side the event was attended by representatives of state organizations supporting trade and foreign investment (China Council For The Promotion Of International Trade, the China Council for International Investment Promotion China International Chamber of Commerce for the Private Sector), and representatives of 70 companies involved in importing products to China or planning to invest abroad in Europe (including representatives of the commercial center of imported products in Tianjin - European Trade Centre, improter of food products - Uniworld International Trading, an online store Dangdang).

Trade and Investment Promotion Section in Beijing plan to hold a second edition of the event on 15 November - the day before Anufood trade fair, which will be held between November 16th-18th.
